Welcome to the Towns of Central Mass South!

Whether you live here, work here, or are here for a visit, our region of Central Mass is alive with opportunities and possibilities.

Widely known as the home of the Brimfield Antiques & Collectibles Shows, the Publick House Historic Inn, and Old Sturbridge Village, our towns – Southbridge, Sturbridge, Charlton, Spencer, the Brookfields, Brimfield, Holland, Wales, and Warren – are also recognized for their local specialty businesses, antique shops, restaurants, beautiful countryside, destination weddings, craft breweries, and rich history.

Our close proximity to the Greater Boston area to the east, the Greater Springfield area to the west, and Hartford to the south, great public schools and community colleges, and highly-respected community healthcare services make living here a desirable option for commuters, and a great place to raise a family.

Our local economy, founded on family-owned manufacturing companies and locally-owned businesses, is strong and self-sustaining, providing employment and driving a buy-local/support-local culture that empowers economic development. Our business community is supported by a number of community financial institutions who invest millions annually in our local economy and community. This makes us an attractive area for launching a new business, financing a home, and investing in your future.

Collectively, the towns that make up Central Mass South create a diverse and vibrant community filled with unique places and experiences to be enjoyed all year long. For more information on our area and suggestions on where to go and what to do, consult the Directory of Member Businesses inside this Guide, and visit the Chamber of Central Mass South website at www.cmschamber.org for more information.

Want to know more about us?

Connect with our history: Wherever you drive in our Townships you are sure to find history markers and points of interest that proudly tell our story. History lovers can also immerse themselves in the past at Old Sturbridge Village, one of the country's oldest and largest living history museums, and in the shops of our many local antique dealers. Then, dine at one of the many historic taverns and restaurants in our region for a fully authentic New England experience.

Plan the wedding of your dreams: From glorious hillside settings to converted barns, informal orchards, and historic inns, we're ready to host your dream wedding! Our members can help you plan for an intimate gathering for a few or an elaborate, 200-person affair, and everything in-between. And you don't have to look beyond this Directory to find caterers, specialty gift shops, and lodging establishments who are honored to work with you to make your wedding day one to remember.

Watch us learn: You are never too young or old to learn something new! Whether you have a preschooler just starting out or a child ready for public school, vocational training, an independent secondary school or community college, look no further than the educational opportunities provided by our Chamber Members. College-bound young adults, returning students, and life-long learners are able to take advantage of the day, evening, and adult education classes offered at our regional, member community colleges, as well as accredited and degree programs, certificate programs, and training classes.

Learn more about our health & wellness options: You do not have to go far to get high-quality medical care and to find experienced medical practitioners in our region. UMass Memorial Health – Harrington, along with our member healthcare organizations, medical and wellness service providers, and mental health practitioners, offer a full range of healthcare services, including preventative care, medical treatment, rehabilitation services, counseling, care management, hypnosis, and other specialties providing personal care in community settings.

Explore our natural environment: Wells State Park (Sturbridge), Camp Robinson Crusoe Recreation Area (Sturbridge), Grand Trunk/Titanic Rail Trail, Brimfield State Forest, Lake Siog (Holland), Peaked Mountain (Monson), Rock House Reservation, Westville Lake (Southbridge/Sturbridge), The Last Green Valley, and other outdoor trails and recreational sites make for great natural getaways, and an opportunity to decompress and appreciate the beauty of our region. Easily accessible trails cater to climbers, strollers, walkers and hikers of all abilities.

Meet our community of professional service providers: From our banks, financial service companies, mortgage lenders, insurance providers, and Realtors, we can help you relocate to or start a business in our region, find and finance a new home, invest in your dreams, and grow your future.

See how we support our own: Our region is home to a range of non-profits that provide support services to a diverse and inclusive community.

Shop, Dine & Stay Local: Our local retailers, markets, lodging establishments and restaurants welcome your business and invite you to experience all we have to offer.

Can we help you find a product, service, gathering space or swimming hole? We'd be delighted to help you KEEP IT LOCAL. Call us at 508-347-2761. We're here to help!
